

Another Year

Everyday I look away, everything's changed
I swear I'm never gonna look away this time.
A little older, a little bit bolder life goes by
I swear I'm never gonna let it slide on by.

(Bridge)
Oh but lately there something strange going on.
Time goes by so much faster, like a familiar song.

(Sax solo)

Another Year goes swiftly on by
Another tear drop falls from reminiscing eyes
Like a soldier, I certainly told her, do not cry.

(Bridge)
Oh but lately there something strange going on.
Time goes by so much faster, like a familiar song.

(Sax solo)

Another Year goes swiftly on by
Another tear drop falls from reminiscing eyes
Like a soldier, I certainly did tell her
A fallen comrade never dies.

Woah -a - whoah - eeh yaaa
